Lucy Rowe | Community Manager

Every older Australian deserves to be cared for as an individual. Our care culture centres on kindness and helping each resident live their best, most joyful life every day – whatever that means to them.

A culture of caring that puts residents first

Feeling at home is about feeling you belong. At Harden Grange, the physical and emotional wellbeing of residents are our highest priorities. We've introduced an award-winning staff culture program that unites our team to work together to put residents first. We listen, respect your choices and support you to live your way.

Design your own day

Just like at home, you decide how you'd like to spend your day. When you rise, eat and shower is up to you, and you're supported to keep doing the things you've always enjoyed, like watering the garden, visiting the hairdresser and continuing your interests. There's no set visiting hours, so you can welcome friends and family whenever you like.

Creating a true sense of home

To offer a more personal living experience, Harden Grange is divided into four households where residents share a country-style living room. Your light-filled private suite, complete with its own ensuite, can be furnished and decorated as you like. Each room opens onto a garden courtyard or veranda with sweeping views of the picturesque surrounds.

Carers who get to know you well

Our Carers and Nurses focus on you as a person, getting to know your story, likes and routine. On-hand 24/7, they provide a holistic care experience tailored to your needs. With specialist expertise across all aspects of aged care, including personalised care, dementia and palliative care, infection control, and respite care, they support each resident with kindness and compassion.

A flexible approach to home-made meals

When it comes to food, there's plenty of choice – just like home. Everything is freshly made in our own restaurant-style kitchen, and our menus offer variety and family favourites. You can choose when and where you eat your meals, and our kitchen staff can make you and your visitors a snack or drink at any time.

Respite care offers families short-term relief

Harden Grange offers short-term aged care in private suites. This can provide much needed support for families caring for their loved one at home, especially when they require additional care for an illness or injury, or at holiday times. We care for respite guests with low care or high care needs.

Harden Grange is part of an innovative national alliance

Apollo Care's unique vision is to strengthen smaller, not-for-profit aged care communities that deliver choice to older Australians who want to remain living locally. We help these communities thrive by enhancing every resident's living experience.
